Thursdays 7:00PM - 9:00PM
Nov. 03 2011 — Dec. 08 2011 (Course #33524)

The dramatic power of line makes drawing a powerful tool of self-expression, and enables students to see the world in a different way. Explore this exciting world and experiment with a variety of approaches and materials. Learn to use charcoal, pencils of various tonalities, Pen and ink, and colored pencil to create your own dynamic drawings. All types of line - contour, gesture, variable and hatched will create unique and exciting drawings. Explore them all and discover the ones that best express you. Draw with confidence and explore a wide range of subject matter – Still life, landscape and drawings from your own photographs and imagination.

Acrylic Painting

Wednesdays 07:00PM - 09:00PM
Nov. 02 2011 — Dec. 12 2011 (#33390)

This is a studio course that introduces and teaches how to create works of art using the Acrylic medium. This class focuses on learning the techniques and skills needed to create paintings.

Students will learn how to paint different compositions such as still life and landscape paintings. Furthermore, the development of observational skills, problem solving techniques, and fundamentals of form and composition such as color, shape, line, mass and space will be introduced. This helps to develop the visual thinking that strengthens the creative process.
